Best practice sponsorship - a top-down approach

<https://www.techsoup.net.nz/learn/articles/best-practice-sponsorship-top-down-approach-webinar>

Content: It takes a whole organisation to deliver on a corporate sponsorship strategy. It doesn't matter whether you are a Board Member, CEO or the fundraiser for your Not-For-Profit - everyone has a role to play in creating and implementing a successful sponsorship program. How well does your organisation pull together? The role of your Board in implementing a philanthropic campaign is well documented. Why then is no-one talking about the fact that it is a conflict of interest for your Board Directors to bring their commercial interests to the table when creating a sponsorship strategy? How 'sponsorship-friendly' is your organisation really? And what does that even mean?

Presenting Organisation: Techsoup

TechSoup New Zealand is a programme run by Connecting Up, Inc. This is the brand under which Connecting Up and TechSoup administer technology donation & discount programs of companies such as Microsoft, Symantec, SAP and many more to eligible not-for-profit organisations in New Zealand. Connecting Up, Inc. is a not-for-profit organisation that works to unleash the power of not-for-profits by providing a variety of information, products, resources and programs. We also help to develop relationships with business, community and government sectors for the development of the not-for-profit sector.

Getting on board - chairing the board

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zOMV3uMKcl8&index=3&list=PL_CpVXRrdRHMARb5mUN2OSAYrzUtfS_Eg

Content: The effectiveness of the chair of the board is arguably one of the most important ingredients in the performance of a governing board. It is a multifaceted role that demands much of its practitioners. Because many of us are simply pitched into the position of chair without much preparation it is thankfully a role that can be learned. This webinar explores a modern conception of the Chair's role and how proactive board leadership assists boards to meet continuing expectations of board effectiveness.

Getting on board 3: Board dynamics

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y9SewbcKC7U&index=7&list=PL_CpVXRrdRHMARb5mUN2OSAYrzUtfS_Eg

Content: This webinar focuses on the diversity of members that can be involved on a board and how best to manage these dynamics. A governing board is a collection of individuals jointly accountable for the performance of an organisation. A board is also, in essence, a social organism made up of a range of disparate and often misaligned individuals. Thus the challenges of effective collective leadership by what, into the bargain, is usually only a part-time group should never be underestimated.
